Company Update

SCOTTSDALE, AZ / ACCESS Newswire / October 1, 2025 / American Nortel Communications, Inc. (OTCID:ARTM) ("American Nortel" or the "Company") today announced a strategic working relationship with Delhivery Limited., India's leading publicly traded logistics and supply chain services company. This collaboration will significantly expand American Nortel's ability to deliver products quickly and efficiently across India, reaching customers in both urban centers and local communities. The relationship leverages Delhivery's nationwide logistics infrastructure, advanced fulfillment technology, and last-mile delivery expertise, ensuring that American Nortel's extensive catalog of products can reach customers faster and more reliably than ever before.

"With American Nortel's incredible sales growth, we are making thousands of deliveries on a monthly basis. In order to accomplish that, the most efficient and fastest platform delivery method is needed. We found that to be Delhivery, Ltd.," said Bill Williams, Chief Executive Officer of American Nortel Communications, Inc. "By partnering with Delhivery, we are strengthening our connection to customers across India - from major cities to the smaller local communities where reliability and trust matter most. Our mission has always been to expand access to quality products at fair prices, and with Delhivery's proven logistics capabilities, delivering 700,000 packages a day, we can now deliver on that promise with greater reach, speed, and consistency."

This relationship is a key milestone in American Nortel's international growth strategy, complementing its expanding product lines and global marketing initiatives. It reflects the Company's commitment to providing dependable service, and reinforcing its position as a dynamic, customer-driven e-commerce brand.
